

Research frontiers in Economic Sociology and Labour Studies (ResFron ESLS)

Seminar cycle

16 October 2017–21 May 2018
Seminar Room (via Conservatorio side)
Department of Social and Political Sciences
via Conservatorio 7 - Milan

Programme

- ▶ 16 OCTOBER 2017, h. 11.00-13.00
Stefano Cantalini (University of Milan)
When do mothers have the first child? Selection into (timing of) motherhood, earnings trajectories and earnings accumulation in Sweden
- ▶ 14 DECEMBER 2017, h. 11.00-13.00
Cristiano Vezzoni (University of Milan)
Social context and political orientation. New concepts and methods for a political sociology classic question
- ▶ 22 JANUARY 2018, h. 11.00-13.00
Marco Castellani (University of Brescia)
Unstructured experimental designs
- ▶ 12 FEBRUARY 2018, h. 11.00-13.00
Giovanna Fullin (University of Milan Bicocca)
Do institutions matter for low wage workers in retail multinationals? An US-Italy comparison on subjective and objective dimensions of job quality
- ▶ 19 MARCH 2018, h. 11.00-13.00
Federico Bianchi (University of Brescia)
Collaboration, trust and support within exchange networks: integrating network analysis and ABM simulation
- ▶ 16 APRIL 2018, h. 11.00-13.00
Marino Regini (University of Milan)
Mediterranean capitalism: a “long and winding road” to competitiveness?
- ▶ 21 MAY 2018, h. 11.00-13.00
Sabrina Colombo (University of Milan)
Matching demand and supply in the labour market