

Call for Scholarship Applications NASP Scholarships Program for ResPos 2018 Summer School

For further details, see NASP Scholarships Program for ResPos 2018 Summer School \(http://www.nasp.eu/news-events-seminars/cfa-respos-2018-scholarships-program.html\)

NASP (Network for the Advancement of Social and Political Studies) invites applications to the NASP Scholarships Program for ResPos 2018 Summer School, supported by CARIPLO Foundation.

NOTE: Interested candidates must apply to both this scholarship and, separately, to the ResPos 2018 Summer School

The objective of this program is to encourage and support international mobility of young researchers. The scholarships are designed to support the participation of nine young researchers, working in non-Italian research institutions (four from EU and five extra-EU), to the ResPos—Research Strategies in Policy Studies 2018 Summer School (June 25-29, 2018 - University of Milan, Milan), organized by NASP.

The ultimate purpose is to enable young researchers to attend the Summer School, giving them the opportunity to widen and enrich their worldwide scholarly network.

Successful candidates must attend all classes of the ResPos Summer School for the entire period June 25-29, 2018. They must have applied to ResPos 2018 Summer School.

The nine scholarships are designed as a contribution to cover travel, accommodation and meals expenses during the stay in Milan, up to a maximum of 1.900 Euro for five researchers from extra-EU research institutions and 900 Euro for four researchers from EU research institutions. NASP will reimburse expenses upon the presentation of original receipts. Reimbursements will be completed by September 2018.

Applications should include:

- 1) full curriculum vitae
- 2) letter of motivation
- 3) one letter of recommendation

The application procedure is online only. Interested candidates can access the online form here.

Note that this is the application procedure ONLY for the scholarship. Candidate must apply separately to the ResPos Summer School.

The deadline for application is 15/05/2018.

For any request, please contact: respos@unimi.it

The selection committee is composed of Giampiero Cama (University of Genoa- NASP), Alessia Damonte and Francesco Zucchini (University of Milan - NASP).
