Marta Furlan is Senior Program Manager for Research at Free the Slaves, an international NGO. She studies armed non-state actors, rebel governance, and civil conflict. Her research interests also include the human rights impact of climate change. Her recent book, Inside Salafi-Jihadist Governance (Columbia University Press, 2025) analyzes Salafi-jihadist rebel administration, drawing on in-depth case studies of the Islamic State in western Iraq and eastern Syria, Hayat Tahrir al-Sham in northwestern Syria, and al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula in southern Yemen.
