

INTERNATIONAL SEMINARS PROGRAM 2005-2006

“Research at the Frontiers of the Social Sciences”

Normally all seminars will take place at the headquarters of the Graduate School, Via Pace 10 at 14.30, unless specified otherwise.

10 December, 2004

Paul Sniderman (Stanford University)
“Muslims and multiculturalism”

19 January, 2005

Yossi Shavit (Tel Aviv University)
“The world-wide expansion of tertiary education: institutional changes and their effects on social stratification”

4 March, 2005

Paul Seabright (Université de Toulouse)
“The company of strangers: a natural history of economic life”

18 March, 2005

Philippe Schmitter (European University Institute)
“The future of democracy in Europe”

29 April, 2005

Kathy Thelen (Northwestern University)
“Institutional change in advanced political economies”

13 May, 2005

Jelle Visser (University of Amsterdam)
“How European welfare states reform – A comparison between the institutional and the policy-learning approaches”

20 May, 2005

Katherine Stone (UCLA School of Law)

"From widgets to digits: employment regulation for the changing workplace"

27 May, 2005

David Soskice (WZB Berlin)

"Analysing changing varieties of capitalism"

10 June, 2005

Jonathan Zeitlin (University of Wisconsin)

"New forms of experimental governance in social Europe"

7 October, 2005

Joni Lovenduski (Birkbeck College, University of London)

"State, feminism and the political representation of women"

21 October, 2005

Duncan Gallie (Oxford University)

"The changing quality of work"

7 February, 2006

Richard Freeman (LSE/Harvard University)

"The waning of American technological and economic hegemony"

10 March, 2006

Ann Shola Orloff (Northwestern University)

"Social Theory, Modernity, and Historical Sociology"

17 March, 2006

J. Padilla (LECG Consulting)

"Designing Antitrust Rules for Assessing Unilateral Practices: A Neo Chicago Approach"

24 March, 2006

E. Ostrom (Indiana University)

"Understanding Institutional Diversity"

15 May, 2006

Julia Lynch (University of Pennsylvania)

"Age in the welfare state"

