

ELISA BORDIN | Curriculum Vitae

I am PhD student in Public Policies and Institutions at the NASP graduate school in Milan with a research interest in sustainability, food policies and human rights.

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

- 10/2021 – Ongoing    PhD Candidate in Political Studies at NASP Graduate school
Università degli studi di Milano (Italy)
- Research interests: public policies, food policies, sustainability, human rights
- 09/2020 – 09/2021    Research Fellow on Circular Economy
Department of Economics at Ca' Foscari University, Venice (Italy)
- Research project on waste valorisation in the leather and eyewear industries
  - Investigating the role of 4.0 technologies in enabling circular supply chains
  - Creating sustainability strategies for companies working in the Veneto Region
  - Organizing workshops for entrepreneurs on sustainability and Circular Economy
- 03/2021 - Ongoing    Independent researcher on Food Poverty and Security
Research project with Prof. Maria Stella Righettini of the University of Padua (Italy)
- Review of the literature on food poverty and food security (2000-2020)
  - Topic detection using Iramuteq software
  - Abstract presented at the SISP Conference 2021
- 09/2019 – 06/2021    “The Race to Institutional Change: The Slow Path in Sexuality Education”
Article written with Prof. Romulo Pinheiro (University of Agder)
- Accepted for publication with Edward Elgar Publishing
Bordin, E., & Pinheiro, R. (2022). The Race to Institutional Change: The Slow Path in Sexuality Education. In J. Trondal, R. Keast, D. Noble, & R. Pinheiro (Eds.), Governing Complexity in Times of Turbulence. Cheltenham and Northampton: Edward Elgar.
  - Presented at the conferences “Governing complexity in Times of Turbulence” (09/2020) and “PATheory Network Conference 2021” (06/2021)
  - Research project from master’s thesis. Grade: A

EDUCATION

- 2017- 2019    Nordig Master Programme in Innovative Governance and Public Management
Double Degree from Tampere University (Finland) and University of Agder (Norway)
- Real-life case studies on the challenges of the public and private sectors
  - Trained in mixed methods
    - Quantitative: Project using statistic measurement. Grade A
    - Qualitative: Use of semi-structured interviews in final thesis
  - Overall performance: 4.83 GPA
- 08/2018 - 01/2019    Exchange period under the ERASMUS+ programme
Royal Institute of Technology (Stockholm, Sweden)
- Developed a project on smart illumination for the city of Stockholm using Design Thinking
- 2012-2015    Bachelor’s Degree in Communication
University of Padua (Italy)

- Final grade: 110/110

09/2014 - 06/2015 Exchange period under the ERASMUS+ programme

Nova University of Lisbon (Portugal)

- Development of a thesis on the influence of art in public spaces of the city of Lisbon

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

08/2019 - 02/2020 Project Officer traineeship

Global Campus of Human Rights (Ex EIUC), Venice (Italy)

- Supported the organization of trainings and summer schools for human rights' experts
- Handled the relationships with international lecturers and students.
- Wrote reports on courses' assessment with the aim of identifying areas of improvement

05-08/2018 Curricular internship

CoGlobal (NGO on Participatory Democracy), Malaga (Spain)

- Wrote articles and reports on projects with schools and local administrations
- Analysed interviews for a PhD research project on decentralised networks
- Supported the planning of an international conference and assessment meetings

Summers 2014/2015 Student collaboration

University of Padua (Italy)

- Job opportunity for honour students
- Counsellor for bachelor's and master's prospective students (2015)
- Administration of questionnaires of evaluation (2014)

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCES

Since 01/2019 Slow Food®

- Supporting the planning and organisation of public events for the local community
- Preparing educational material for events and social media

06/2016 Redtinku (Bolivian NGO)

- Educational activities with children and local population of Cochabamba

ADDITIONAL EDUCATION

03/2020 "Global sustainability and corporate social responsibility: Be sustainable"

E-learning course from "Macquarie University" of Sydney

- Acquired relevant knowledge on Corporate Social Responsibility
- Familiarized with sustainability assessment tools developed by the United Nations

2019 "Hack The Waste"

Hackathon organised by the Veneto Region (Italy) on Food Waste

- Winner of the contest with a project on the use of AI for reducing agricultural waste

LANGUAGES

Italian	English	Spanish	Portuguese
Native	Fluent	Very Good	Good

DIGITAL SKILLS

- Proficient in MS Office applications, basic use of graphic software (Illustrator, InDesign), knowledge of statistical analysis software (Iramuteq)