• OTHER EXPERIENCES AND SKILLS

Facilitator of “SessFem” workshop

Via Kramer 20, 20129, Milano, Italia.

February-July 2019.

“SessFem” is the Italian version of “FemSex”, a student-facilitated course born in the University of Berkeley, California. The purpose of “SessFem” is to create a safe space that encourages and facilitates the ability of people to learn about their bodies and sexuality; explore their boundaries, desires, experiences; and expand their understanding of power and privilege. Topics in class are designed to raise consciousness about: anatomy and physiology, the influence of social hierarchies in all reproductive choices, solo sex, partner sex, orgasm, sex work, communication, consent, relationships, gender/sex-based violence, and empowerment. “SessFem” strives to promote an environment of self-acceptance and to create strength through knowledge using group discussion, readings, analysis, guest speakers, films, and writings.
