

EDDA ORLANDI

Orlandi, Edda Cecilia Maria
Born in Milan, 1981

e-mail: edda.orlandi@unimi.it

Education

- 2006 - PhD Student in Sociology, Graduate School in Social, Economic and Political Science, State University of Milan.
- October 2008 – April 2009: Visiting at the Department of Anthropology of University College London, UK.
- Research topic: I'm carrying out an ethnographic research on waste in a co-op hypermarket. My research project is focused on the following issue: How and why can something become (a certain kind of) waste?
- Supervisor: Prof. Roberta Sassatelli
Co-supervisor: Prof. Luisa Leonini
- 2003 - 2005 Master's Degree in Social Sciences (2 year course), State University of Milan. Final Grade: 110/110 cum laude.
- September 2004 - January 2005: Erasmus at the Université Libre de Bruxelles, Belgium.
- Dissertation topic: food shopping and family/economic values in Italian families. The dissertation was based on in-depth interviews.
- Supervisor: Prof. David Moss
Co-supervisor: Prof. Enzo Colombo
- 2000 - 2003 Bachelor in Political Science (3 year course), State University of Milan. Final Grade: 110/110 cum laude.

Work experience

January 2008 – September 2008

I helped with the exams of the "Cultural Anthropology" courses (Prof. David Moss and Dr. Angela Biscaldi, Social and Political Studies Department).

January 2006 – September 2008

I helped with the exams and I taught seminar lessons linked to the "Analysis of complex societies" course (Prof. Marco Maraffi, Social and Political Studies Department) for 3 years, on the topic of religion and values.

March – October 2006

I worked as an interviewer (in-depth interviews on the topic of ethnic food) for the Research Project "Food, Culture and Identity" (Prof. Enzo Colombo, State University of Milan).

March – July 2005

I worked as a on line guide and reviewer of teaching materials for the Learning@Europe project at the Communication and Electronics Department, Politecnico of Milan. Learning@Europe was an on-line teaching project on history and European identity for secondary school students.

Languages

Mother tongue: Italian.

Other languages: English and French (Good knowledge), German (School knowledge).