

Spyridon Boikos

Isminis street 53B
Kolonos, 10444
Athens
Greece
email: spirosboikos@yahoo.gr / spyridon.boikos@unimi.it

Personal Born: April 1981 (Athens, Greece)
Citizenship: Greek
Status: single

Education

2008-2011 University of Milano (Italy)
PhD in Economics

2006-2007 University of Guelph (Canada)
Master of Arts in Economics (October 2007).

1999-2003 Panteion University (Athens, Greece)
Ptychio in Economics (November 2003).

Fellowships & Papers

2001-2002 Scholarship by The State Foundation of Greece (IKY).

1999-2000 Scholarship by The State Foundation of Greece (IKY).

2006-2007 Research Project “The Impact of FDI (Foreign Direct Investment) on Growth”, under the supervision of Prof. T. Stengos.

2001-2002 Research Project “The Impact of Black Economy in The Entrance of Greece in E.U.”, under the supervision of Prof. N. Tatsos.

Skills Office & Statistical software: MS-Office, Scientific Workplace, EViews, SPSS, TSP, STATA, Matlab (current learning).

Languages: mother tongue is Greek; fluent spoken/written English.

Work experience

2007 Athens Biennial company, (Greece).
Economic Consultant.

2006-2007 Department of Economic, University of Guelph, (Canada).
Teaching Assistant
Courses: Mathematics for Economists (Fall sem. 2006), Introductory Macroeconomics (Winter sem. 2007), Intermediate Microeconomics (Winter sem. 2007), Macro 2 (graduate course – Summer sem. 2007).

Topic of thesis : Economic Growth and International Market Shocks

Research interests :

Human capital accumulation under shocks, immigration, income redistribution, mathematical economics and applied econometrics.

Personal interests : I like playing sports such as basketball, soccer, chess, listening to classical and folk music, travelling, reading newspapers, historical and medical books.