

ELENA DE GIOANNIS

PhD Student in Economic Sociology and Labour Studies

INFO

Phd student in Economic Sociology and Labour Studies (Università degli Studi di Milano), I graduated in Economics and Social Sciences at Università commerciale L. Bocconi in 2017. Both my academic and professional background has focused on research, since I worked as a research assistant in both the private and academic sectors. The research topics I am interested in are economic development, migration, education and gender inequalities.
